

Hotel General Manager

Sleep Inn & Suites, Louisville, KY

Defined by collaborative communication, innovative leadership and winning attitudes The Hamister Hospitality Group, Inc. currently manages select-service hotels in the states of Pennsylvania, Tennessee, and Kentucky. We have a strong management reputation and work with some of the most recognizable names in the hospitality industry, including Marriott, Hilton, InterContinental, and Choice.

We are currently seeking a General Manager to join our Sleep Inn & Suites in Louisville, KY who is looking for a position of responsibility and continued development, as well as a position which affords autonomy to make decisions and collaborate with our senior management.

Reporting to our Nashville-based Regional Director of Operations with full accountability to the President, responsibilities include management of all hotel operations and department management. Specific duties include:

- RevPAR improvement initiatives and strategy implementation
- Development and implementation of sales strategies with the property's Sales Manager
- Guest satisfaction and brand quality assurance initiatives
- Monthly, quarterly, and year-end financial reporting and P&L assessment
- Supporting the corporate annual budget, including monthly variance analysis

The ideal candidate will have a minimum of three years hotel-specific management experience. We will consider an Assistant General Manager looking to take the next step in their hospitality career or a current General Manager who is looking to further develop their management talents in a corporation with a strong multi-flag presence.

Interviews are being scheduled with senior management this week.
